

Thursday 11th February RE Week 6 Famous Christian People

Today we are looking at Desmond Tutu. He is a Christian - he has dedicated his life working for the equality of people no matter what the colour of their skin or where they come from.

Later we will share the story God's Dream written by Desmond Tutu. First we will look at some facts about his life and work.

Desmond Tutu is a religious leader from South Africa.

In 1986 he became an Arch Bishop.

He was born on 7th October 1931 in South Africa

In 1961 he became a priest in the Anglican Church.

In 1964 he won the Nobel Peace Prize.

Between 1972 and 1975 he worked in Great Britain for the World Council of Churches,

Then complete the tasks on the next pages.

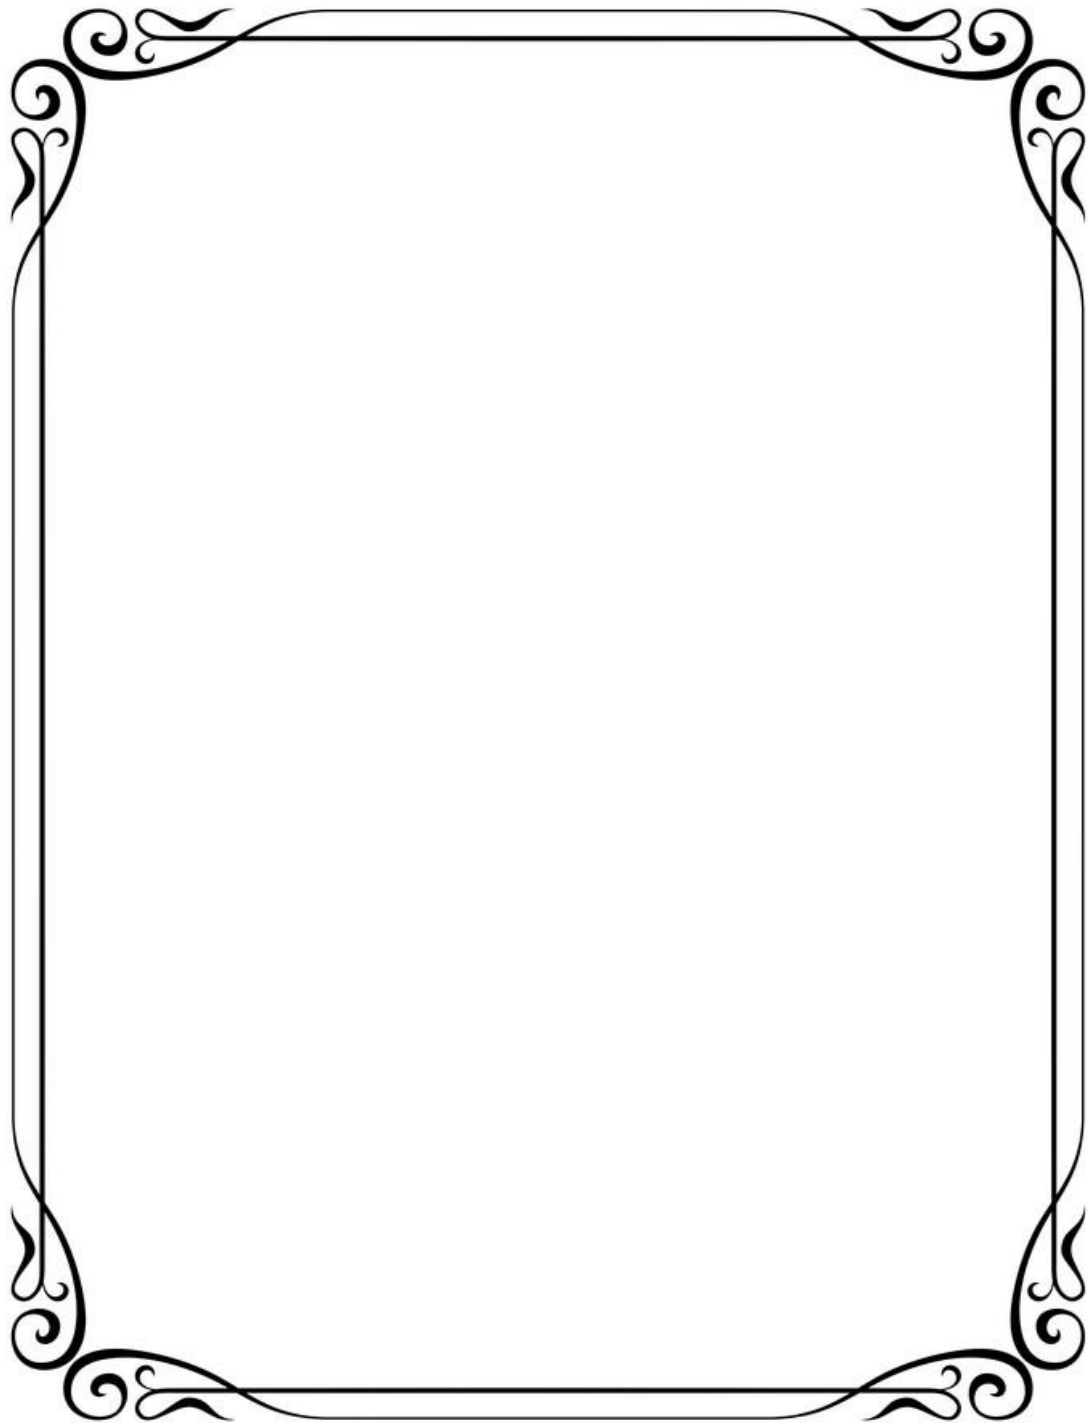

Task 1

Write about what you think would be in a world that makes God happy.

The writing area consists of 12 sets of horizontal lines. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for handwriting.

Task 2

Draw a picture of the wonderful world you have just described.

Don't forget to photograph and upload your work
