

Literacy.

Monday 11th January, 2021.

This week in literacy, we are going to be reading 'Willy's stories' by Anthony Browne and reading all about the different adventures he goes on. By the end of the week you will be writing part of a story.

This book is full of stories about all the different adventures Willy goes on.

WALT: Make predictions about a story.

Read page 1 of the story.

VERY TIME I walk through these doors something incredible happens. I go on AMAZING adventures.

Come with me and I'll show you...

Tell the people in your house, what adventures do you think Willy goes on?

Let's have a look at some of the adventures Willy has been on...

ONE DAY I went through the doors and found I was shipwrecked with the Captain's dog on a desert island. I could see no one else there and, apart from a friendly parrot, I was all alone. I walked by the sea looking for signs of life but I never saw anything.

Then, one day – I knew it was a Friday, as I had been marking the days on a calendar – I saw a FOOTPRINT IN THE SAND!

I froze as if I'd seen a ghost. I looked around, up and down the beach. I listened but I could see nothing and hear nothing. I checked to see if I had imagined the footprint (I sometimes do imagine things), but there it was – the exact shape of a foot, in the sand.

But I was sure; there was no one else on the island. I was STUNNED!

Whose footprint do YOU think it was?

Tell the people in your house, whose footprint do you think it was? Why do you think that? Give a detailed answer.

Let's read another adventure...

ANOTHER TIME, when I went through the doors, I found I was a sailor on board a ship, looking for treasure. We had a map and the treasure was supposed to be hidden on an island.

I was hungry and climbed into an apple barrel (yes, that's right – to get an apple).

As I hid inside the barrel I heard a sailor called Long John Silver whispering to some of his shipmates, telling them that as soon as the treasure had been found they would kill the Captain and the officers and keep the treasure for themselves.

Then he told one of the crew to get him an apple from the barrel. You can imagine how TERRIFIED I was! I wanted to jump out of the barrel and RUN, but I was too scared. I heard the sailor walk towards the barrel and...

What do you think happened then?

Tell the people in your house, what do you think happened then? Give a detailed answer.

Today's tasks.

Task 1. Read the adventure...

ANOTHER DAY I went through the doors and into the countryside. I needed to cross a stream but I had my best clothes on and didn't want to get them wet. Then I saw a jolly-looking priest tucking into a pie, so I asked him if he would carry me over the water.

"WHAT?" he bellowed. "A pathetic little WIMP like you dares to ask ME, Friar Tuck, to carry YOU across?"

He paused, then his anger seemed to pass and his little eyes twinkled. "But why not?" he said. "Surely I can be merry too. I could help you, even though you are such a miserable creature."

The Friar tucked up his robe and bent down. "I think," he said with a smile, "your sword will get wet. Let me put it under my arm next to mine." I climbed on his back and Friar Tuck stepped into the water and waded forwards while I clung on for dear life. I did not want to fall into the water. When he reached the middle of the stream, where the water was deepest, he stopped and began to laugh. I felt myself begin to slip.

Can you guess what happened next?

Task 2.

Write a prediction about what will happen next in the story.

Your prediction must be a paragraph long (5 or more sentences) and be detailed.

You need to include in your prediction:

- Capital letters and full stops.
- Adjectives, this will make your prediction more detailed and exciting to read.
- Beautiful handwriting and presentation of your work.
- Please remember to photograph your child's work and send it to your class teacher using Class DOJO.
