

I got a good comment on my maths work because I have been working really hard in class recently.

I did well in that spelling test because I did my homework and learned the words really well.

I had to take the chocolate because they would call me names if I didn't.

I feel proud of myself because I did the right thing when Shaheed hit Naomi.

I got a good comment on my maths work because the teacher likes me.

He made me laugh so I got thrown out of class.

I lost the game because I hadn't practised.

I lost the game because the other side cheated.

I did well in that spelling test because the spellings were easy.

I didn't get the part in the play because I hadn't learned my lines.

I couldn't finish my homework because I had to watch my favourite TV programme.

I am good at swimming because I practise every day after school.