

Miss Sheppard's English Group Wednesday 10/2/21

WALT: Use punctuation accurately

Read Whistle for a Dog pages 14 to 17 again

We use capital letters:

To start a sentence

For names of people; days of the week; months of the year; names of streets and towns.

Full stops and question marks show the end of sentences. Question marks are for questions.

TASK 1

This piece of writing is missing its capital letters, full stops and question marks.

Copy out this piece of writing and make sure you put in the capital letters, full stops and question marks.

lucy was in the park with her mum and dad she saw mark with his dog spotty lucy wanted a dog like spotty lucy asked her mum for a dog her mum said she could have a rabbit lucy did not want a rabbit lucy's dad said she could have a cat lucy did not want a cat mum said she could have a small dog lucy did not want a small dog

Please remember to photograph your work and send it to Miss Fox using the portfolio on Class DOJO.